

Friends of the New Brunswick Free Public Library

2008-9 Programs

Lunch-Hour Programs

- October 1 Politics in the Year of Two Primaries: Rutgers political scientist Gerald Pomper offers a perspective in a year when New Jersey party voters went to the polls twice to select candidates for local and national office.
- November 5 What's Happening: James Hughes, dean of Rutgers Bloustein School and coeditor of the Sitar Rutgers Regional Report delivers his insights on what is happening in (and to) New Jersey.
- December 5 Music from Mason Gross: Student musicians from Rutgers' Mason Gross School of the Arts will play classical compositions.
- January 2, 2009 Schools Report: School Superintendent Richard Kaplan returns with an update on how the Schools Construction Corp. work on the new city high school is progressing, what happened to Redshaw School, and other scholastic matters.
- February 4 Growin' Stuff in New Brunswick: Urban Gardening
- March 5 New Brunswick Report: New Brunswick Mayor James M. Cahill, will speak.
- April 1 More from Mason Gross.
- May 6 American History in Music: Guitarist-lecturer Richard Roden will deliver the history of the United States through World War I in song, periodically accompanying himself by guitar and audience sing-alongs. A New Jersey Council for the Humanities program.
- June 3 It Wouldn't Be the Hub City if Nothing Happened Here: City historian George Dawson will reprise the history of New Brunswick from Peter Stuyvesant to the Hungarian Revolution

All programs are on the 1st Wednesday of the month, from 12:15 to 1:00 pm, and in the library community room